DESCRIPTION

A comprehensive U.S. Army survival manual covering shelter building, fire craft, water procurement, food gathering, navigation, signaling, first aid, camouflage, evasion, and field-expedient techniques developed through decades of military experience. Color pictures within.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Survival begins with the right mindset.
- Prioritize shelter, fire, water, and signaling.
- Learn to improvise with available resources.
- Navigation skills remain essential.
- Practice the skills before you need them.

WHY IT MATTERS

FM 21-76 provides practical, time-tested survival knowledge that doesn't depend on modern technology. Whether you're stranded, responding to a disaster, or building preparedness skills, the manual teaches proven methods that prioritize self-reliance and problem-solving under adverse conditions.
